Turin, Sept. 11. N. S.

THE Duke of Savoy has been ill of an Ague, but having for several days had no return of it, he is gone from hence to his Palace at Scire for the benefit of the Air. The Dutchess-Dowager has been very ill of a Fever, but is perfectly recovered.

Venice, Septemb. 18. The Senate having made Choice of Signior Pietro Venier to be Procurator of St. Mark in the room of Signior Ruzzini deceased, he took Possession of that Dignity on Monday last with the usual Ceremonies, and his Friends and Relations according to custom made Publick Rejoicings. The Count de Berka, Ambassador from the Emperor, has received from Vienna a Commission to be Great Marshal of the Kingdom of Bohemia. The Advices from Rome of the 11th Instant give an Account, that the Pope is much better; When he was thought to be at the last Extremity, the Cardinals began to declare their Sentiments in relation to a new Election, and appeared to be divided in Five Factions; One in favour of Cardinal Rospiglioſi, at the Head of which is Cardinal Panciatici; Another for Cardinal Carpegna, supported by Cardinal Ottoboni; A Third that call themselves the Zealots, who set up Cardinal Azolini; A Fourth Party for Cardinal del Verme; And the Fifth, (of which Cardinal Spinola is Chief) who have not yet declared for any body, and resolve to keep together, and give their Votes as they shall think fit hereafter.

From the Saxon Camp before Riga, Sept. 16. N. S. The King of Poland, upon the Instances of Monsieur du Heron, Envoy from France, and other Foreign Ministers, and upon the Representations made to him on behalf of the English and Dutch Merchants, who would have been great Sufferers if the Town of Riga had been Bombarded, has given over this Design, and accordingly the Batteries that were raised for this purpose are ordered to be demolished, and the heavy Artillery will be sent back to Courland. The said Ministers continue to employ their good Offices for accommodating the Differences between the King of Poland and the Crown of Sweden, and 'tis said they have already made a good Progress in this Negociation.

Mittaw, Sept. 17. Letters from the Camp before Riga give an Account, that the Negociations carried on by the French, and other Foreign Ministers, for adjusting Matters between the Kings of Sweden and Poland, seem to be in a very good way, and that the King of Poland, in compliance with the pressing Instances of the said Ministers, has wholly laid aside his Design of Bombarding Riga, and ordered the Batteries to be demolished, and the heavy Artillery to be sent back hither.

Carelshaven, Sept. 20. The King of Sweden is still here, but intends to go in 2 or 3 days to Ystede, where the Duke of Holstein is shortly expected from Holstein. The Preparations for the Transport of 10000 Swedish Forces to Livonia are in such a forwardness, that 'tis thought they will be embarked and ready to sail within a fortnight. The Discourse continues, that the King of Sweden designs to go with them to Livonia.

Copenhagen, Sept. 25. The King of Denmark continues as well as can be expected in his condition, and the Small-pox begin to dry. The Seamen that were on board the Danish Fleet are paid off, and discharged; and 'tis said, that part of the Danish Forces that served in Holstein will be disbanded. A Block-house is ordered to be built before Christians-haven, to prevent the Bombarding of this Place by Sea. The Equipage of Count Chamilly, the French Ambassador, is arrived here from Hamburgh, and his Excellency is expected to morrow. The Duke of Wirtemberg intends to go from hence in a few days to Holland.

Vienna, Sept. 18. On the 15th Instant the Elector and Electoress Palatine were splendidly entertained at Dinner by the King of the Romans at his House at Schonbrun; and the same afternoon their Electoral Highnesses took their Leave of the Imperial Court, and lay that night at Buckerstorf, from whence they continued their Journey the next day towards Dusseldorp, being attended by Commissioners appointed by the Emperor to defray their Expences as far as Ried, on the Frontiers of the Electorate of Bavaria. The Emperor and Empress, and the King and Queen of the Romans, are gone to Eberstorf, where they intend to continue till the middle of the next month. Yesterday Prince Charles of Newbourg returned to Breslaw in Silesia, where he designs to continue till the Celebrating of his Marriage with the young Princess Lubomirsky. The Prince her Father arrived here this day from Poland, and intends to wait upon the Emperor at Eberstorf, and from thence to proceed to Rome. The Cardinal Lemberg is come hither from his Bishoprick of Passau, and intends to go in a day or two to Eberstorf to receive the Cap from the Emperor's hands. The last Advices from Upper Hungary say, the Imperial and Turkish Commissioners have renewed their Conferences for settling the Limits on that side, wherein 'tis supposed they will meet with no great difficulty, the Boundaries being distinguished in most Places by Rivers and Mountains.

Hamburgh, Sept. 28. The Commissioners appointed by the King of Denmark and the Duke of Holstein, to adjust several Matters that were not settled by the Treaty of Travendahl, will begin their Conferences in 3 or 4 days. The Duke has ordered a considerable quantity of Silver to be Coined, with the Bombarding of Tonningen on one side, and the Conclusion of the Peace between the King of Denmark and his Highness on the other, which will be distributed among the Officers and Soldiers that were in that Place when it was Besieged. His Highness intends to go from hence the 30th Instant with General Bannier, and divers other Officers that are to serve under him, to wait upon the King of Sweden at Ystade before they proceed on their Voyage to Livonia. Our Letters from thence give an Account, that the Ministers of the Princes, who employ their Mediation to adjust the Differences between the Kings of Sweden and Poland, have prevailed with the latter to desist from his Enterprize against Riga, and that he appears enclinable to hearken to Terms of Accommodation. There are Advices, That the Czar parted from Moscow the 22d of the last Month to join his Forces which are said to be marching towards Narva.
